

Dear Dr. Leonidas Lanaras,

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to you regarding the upcoming Abstract Reviewing process for ECIM 2025 (23rd European Congress of Internal Medicine).

We would like to invite you to contribute as an abstract reviewer for the ECIM 2025. With the majority of abstract submissions for ECIM 2025 now complete, we are starting for the abstract evaluation phase on November 25th.

We believe, your expertise would greatly enhance the quality of the review process. Kindly confirm your interest in participating as an abstract reviewer by November 30th.

We would appreciate it if you could review the abstracts by December 6th.

Upon your confirmation, we will promptly provide you with detailed information about the abstract reviewing process.

The abstract topics are listed below. Kindly indicate 5 topics you would like to review, and we will make an effort to assign abstracts within your preferred categories.

- Acute Care and Emergency Medicine
- Cardiovascular Diseases and risk factors
- Cerebrovascular and Neurologic Diseases
- Digital Health and Telemedicine
- Endocrine and Metabolic Diseases
- Gastrointestinal and Liver Diseases
- Gender Medicine
- Geriatrics and Multimorbidity
